Terrence Meehan, M.A.P., CHE is a seasoned Health Care Administrator with over 35 years of experience in various senior positions in both the public and private sectors. With a clinical background as a Respiratory Therapist, he possesses a Master's degree in Public Administration. From 2005-2013, he was Director of Logistics at the McGill University Health Centre (MUHC) in Montreal. In July of 2013, he was named Director of Relocation Adult sites, working with Planning and Redevelopment to assure a smooth shift to the soon to be completed $1.3 billion Glen Campus of the MUHC. Terry learnt LEAN Healthcare at the University of Tennessee and applied his training at the MUHC. His presentation will be on his experience using LEAN management in logistics and clinical operations in acute healthcare with lessons for his colleagues across Quebec and Canada.
