Calgary and surrounding southern Alberta communities experienced the worst natural disaster in Alberta's history in June 2013. The flooding that occurred significantly impacted many communities. This will be the first in a series of speakers talking about the emergency response to the disaster, both from the community and healthcare perspective, and the leadership lessons learned.

Featured Guest Speaker

Fire Chief Bruce Burrell

Mr. Burrell co-ordinates the response of up to 29 different groups that make up the Calgary Emergency Management Agency (CEMA). These include the Tri-Services of Police, Fire and EMS, as well as other City business units and partners such as Alberta Health Services, utility companies and school boards. Mr. Burrell is also The City of Calgary's Fire Chief.
